

Unit 2 Musculoskeletal Systems Test – Learning Target Reflection

A. I can explain the phrase muscles only pull and provide evidence for it.

= Perfect, didn't miss anything

B. I can name and describe the three types of muscles.

C. I can show that muscles work in pairs.

E. I can build a model that shows that bone is strong and light.

= missed one

F. I can diagram the three parts of a bone and explain their functions.

G. I can name and locate on a drawing or model the cranium, humerus, femur, tibia, phalanges, collar bone, shoulder blade, sternum, radius, ulna, carpals, tarsals.

H. I can show the difference between the structure of a human vs. other animal skeletons.

= missed 2 or more

I. I can describe and identify pivot, hinge, ball and socket, and gliding joints in humans.

J. I can explain the difference between ligaments and tendons.

Overall Test Score: _____%

Did you get a 70% or higher

Yes, so it is optional for me to retake it

No, so it is NOT optional for me to retake it

What I Can statements do you need to work on?
(you can list the letters from the targets above)