

Environmental Pressures

Environmental Pressures = activities and factors that cause the environment to change which in turn can cause organisms to change

Environmental Pressure

Adaptation To Survive

Use activity cards to fill out this chart!

Variation allows a population to adapt to change and survive a variety of threats! If that survive they pass on beneficial traits to the next generation.